

Contents

About the Authors	xi
Chapter 1
The Development of Health Law	1
Health Care Industry Background	3
Providers	4
Suppliers	5
Payors	5
Pharmaceuticals	6
Major Forces Impacting Health Care	6
Demographics	7
Technology	7
Competition	7
Quality	7
Integration	8
Budgetary Pressure	8
PPACA	8
Your Career in Health Law	9
Chapter 2
Where to Find a Job as a Health Lawyer—By Content Area	11
Antitrust	11
Corporate, Transactional, and Contract Law	16
Criminal Law	18
Disability and Elder Law	19
Health Policy and Advocacy, Bioethics, and Public Health	22
Health Policy and Advocacy	22
Bioethics	23

---

Public Health	24
Insurance	25
Employment and Labor Law	29
Life Sciences, Intellectual Property, and Food and Drug Law	30
Litigation	32
Regulatory Law	33
Tax Law	34
Chapter 3
Where to Find a Job as a Health Lawyer—By Practice Setting	37
Law Firms	37
Large Firms	38
Midsize Firms	45
Small Firms	48
Boutique Firms	48
Law Firm Clients	49
Individual Patients	49
Individual Health Care Providers	49
Institutional Health Care Providers	50
Insurance Companies	50
Pharmaceuticals, Suppliers, and Vendors	50
Trade Associations	51
Government	51
Federal Government	51
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services	52
U.S. Department of Justice, Office of the U.S. Attorney General	54
Federal Trade Commission	55
Office of Diversion Control	56
Internal Revenue Service	56
U.S. Department of Labor	56
Social Security Administration	56
Department of Veterans Affairs	57
Searching for Jobs in the U.S. Government	57

State Government	58
Attorney General	58
Department of Public Health	58
Department of Insurance	59
Insurance Exchanges	59
Department of Health Care	59
Department of Veterans Affairs	60
Health Care Licensing Boards and Agencies	60
Local Government	60
County Boards	60
Public Health Departments	60
City Legal Departments	61
Searching for Jobs in State and Local Government	61
In-House	63
Health Care Providers	64
Suppliers and Vendors	68
Pharmaceutical and Medical Device Companies	68
Insurers and Payors	69
Consulting Firms	69
Public Interest Law	69
Health Care Trade Organizations	73

Chapter 4

Nontraditional Jobs in Health Law	75
Compliance	75
Consulting	81
Business	85
Academia	85
Legal Education	86
Tenure-Track Faculty Positions	86
Clinical Teaching	87
Adjunct Faculty	88
Medical Schools	89
Other Programs	89
Higher Education Administration	89

Other Areas	90
Public Health	90
Nonprofit Organizations	91

Chapter 5

Before You Apply: Essential Preliminary Steps for Health Law Job Seekers

Seekers	95
Gaining Knowledge and Monitoring the Market	95
Obtaining Knowledge and Skills Specific to Health Law	96
Monitoring the Health Law Market	96
Developing Your Network	97
The Importance of Networking	97
Why Networking Works	98
How to Network	99
Assessing Your Network	99
Expanding Your Network	100
Develop Association Memberships	100
Contact College and Law School Professors, Alumni Groups, and Career Services Offices	101
Identify Law Firms and Other Organizations That Have a Health Law Focus	101
Use Social Media to Create an Online Presence	101
Volunteer	102
Take Up a New Group Hobby	102
Attend Continuing Legal Education Programs	102
Informational Meetings	102
Setting Up the Meeting	103
Examples of What to Say on the Phone or in an E-mail	103
Be Prepared to Talk When You Call	104
Be Prepared to Introduce Yourself	104
Be Prepared with a List of Questions to Ask	105
Conducting the Meeting	105
What to Discuss	105
Suggested Questions to Ask Your Networking Contact	105

---

Following Up After the Meeting	106
Always Send a Thank-You	106
Evaluate and Follow Through	106
Keeping Track of Networking Contacts	107
Etiquette and Other Considerations	107
For Law Students	108
Master Basic Legal Skills	108
Go Beyond the Basics	109
Gain Practical Experience	110
Part-Time Employment	110
Externships	111
Clinical Experience	112
Extracurricular Activities	113
For Lawyers Transitioning to Health Law or Changing
Paths within Health Law	114
Advanced Degrees	114
Master of Laws (LLM)	115
Master of Public Health (MPH)	116
Master of Public Administration (MPA)/Public Policy
(MPP)	117
Master of Health Administration (MHA)	117
Master of Health Science (MHS)	118
Master of Business Administration (MBA)	118
Certifications	118
Continuing Legal Education	119
Pro Bono Work	119
Marketing Legal Skills for Nonlegal Jobs	119
Chapter 6
Applying for Jobs in Health Law	123
Preparing Your Health Law Résumé	123
Education	124
Work Experience	125
Special Skills/Interests	126
Preparing for the Interview	126

Discussing Your Résumé in Interviews	127
Attire	127
What to Bring to the Interview	128
Logistics	128
Nonverbal Communication	128
Answering Interview Questions	128
Negative Questions	130
Interview Questions You May Be Asked	130
Questions to Ask Employers During an Interview	131
Behavioral Interviews	132
Phone or Skype Interviews	133
Handling Group/Team Interviews	133
After the Interview	134
Monitor Status Tactfully	134
Acknowledge Any Job Offer Immediately	134
Respond to Job Offers Appropriately	134
Closing Thoughts	137
Appendix A
Health Law and Bar Organizations	139
Appendix B
Federal Government Agency Websites	141
Searching for Jobs in the U.S. Government	141
Appendix C
Other Employers	143
Health Care Providers	143
Suppliers and Vendors	143
Pharmaceutical and Medical Device Companies	144
Public Interest Law	144
Health Care Trade Associations	144
Insurers and Payors	145
Consulting Firms	146

Appendix D Health Care Publications	147
Appendix E Health Law Writing Competitions	149
Appendix F Résumé and Cover Letter Examples	153
Index	159