

Contents

Preface	xiii
CHAPTER ONE
The Life Phases of a Law Firm	1
<hr/>
The Planning Phase	2
Preparing the Financial Plan	2
Creating a Budget	4
Financial Reporting	5
Cash Flow	5
Financing	5
Paying Interest to Owners	6
Paying for Good Will	6
Capitalizing Profits	7
Taxes	7
The Growth Phase	8
The Institution Emerges	8
More Emphasis on the Planning Process	9
Governance and Management	9
Expanded Client Services	9
Nonlawyer Management	10
Capital Needs	10
Ownership Issues	10
Retirement Planning	10
Strategic Technology Planning	11
Strategic Marketing Planning	11
Compensation Policy Adjustments	11

The Trouble Phase	12
Relying on One Client	12
Democratic Management	12
Lobster Taste and Hamburger Rates	13
Information Blackout	13
Formula-Based Compensation System	13
High Owner Billable Hours	14
Low Owner-to-Associate Ratio	14
Undercapitalization	14
No Ownership Agreements	15
No Formal Retirement Program	15
No Formal Plan of Governance	15
Expense Orientation	15
Inadequate Budget Reviews	16
No Institutional Focus	16
Ownership	16
Terminating Owners	17
Definition of a Nonproductive Owner	17
What Makes an Owner Become Nonproductive?	17
How to Deal with a Nonproductive Owner	18
Deciding Whether to Take Action	18
Preventing an Owner from Becoming Nonproductive	19
Payout of Terminated Owners	19
Summary	20
CHAPTER TWO
Financial Management: The Process	21
<hr/>
Historical Data	22
The Budget Process	23
Analysis, Evaluation, and Interpretation	24
CHAPTER THREE
The Financial Plan: Determining Gross Income	27
<hr/>
The Key to More Net Income	27
Steps in the Plan	28
The Hours Budget	29
Billing Rates	31
Rate Differentials	32
Standard Hourly Rates	33
Gross Income Calculation	33

CHAPTER FOUR
The Billing Rate Formula Model	35
<hr/>
Introduction	35
Description of Model	36
Formula for Billing Rate Computation	36
Formula for Billable Hours Computation	37
Examples	37
Formulas	37
Appendix A: Billing Rate Formula Model	38
CHAPTER FIVE
Expenses	43
<hr/>
Is Expense Reduction Possible?	43
Functional Expense Categories	44
Compensation	45
Payroll Taxes	46
Other Personnel Costs	46
Depreciation and Amortization	46
Occupancy Costs	47
Professional Expenses	47
Practice Development Activities	48
Recruiting	48
General Staff Expenses	49
Library	49
Office Supplies	49
Telecommunications	49
Other Operating Expenses	50
Technology	50
Monthly Accruals	50
Expense Ratios	51
Contribution to Owner Compensation	52
Client Cost Recoveries	52
Evaluating Accounts Payable	53
Evaluating Support Costs	53
CHAPTER SIX
Calculating Net Income	55
<hr/>
Realization	55
Rate Realization	55
Billing Realization	56

Write-Offs	56
Overall Cash Realization	57
Expense Write-Offs	57
Turnover	58
Other Cash Income	61

CHAPTER SEVEN

The Financial Planning Model 63

Overall Description of Model	63
Information Required	64
Annual Budget	67
Summary Budget Information	67
Comparison of Budget versus Actual	67
Cash Flow Analysis	72
Historical Monthly Information	72
Monthly Budgeted Income	74
Monthly Billable Hours Budgets	76
Volume-Price Analysis	77
Monthly Financial Report Summary	77
Appendix A: Model Chart of Accounts for a Law Firm	81
Appendix B: Simple Budget Model	87

CHAPTER EIGHT

Reviewing the Results 93

The Firm Report Card	93
Correcting a Shortfall	95
Analyzing Billings and Collections	96

CHAPTER NINE

Financial Reporting 99

Information Tracked by Law Firms	99
Firm Level	99
Billing (Primary) Lawyer Level	100
Working Lawyer Level	100
Accrual-Basis and Cash-Basis Expense Ratios	101
Accrual and Cash Overhead Expense Ratios	101
Overhead per Timekeeper Equivalent	101
Cost per Billable Hour	102
Work-in-Process and Accounts Receivable Aging	102
Work-in-Process and Accounts Receivable per Timekeeper	102

Working Lawyer Billable Hours	102
What Does All This Information Mean?	103
Common Problem Areas	104
Low Billable Hours	104
Low Billable Value	105
Low Billings	105
Low Receipts	106
Annual Report	107
CHAPTER TEN
The Balance Sheet: The Statement of Worth	109
<hr/>
Understanding Cash Flow	109
Capital	111
Cash Flow Analysis	112
CHAPTER ELEVEN
Cost Accounting	115
<hr/>
Cost Analysis	116
Allocating Costs	117
Calculating Overhead	119
Determining Profitability	121
Developing Cost Rates	123
Marginal Income	129
Alternative Billing Methods	130
Use as a Compensation Device	131
Miscellaneous Issues	132
Improper Recording of Billable Hours	132
Disproportionate Cost Rate	132
Guidelines for Profitability	132
CHAPTER TWELVE
Alternative Billing: Is There a Better Way?	137
<hr/>
Value Pricing	138
Making Value Billing a Reality	138
Determining Value	139
Overcoming Obstacles to Alternative Billing	140
Determining Rates	141
One-Time Increase	141
Range of Rates	141
Surcharge Rate	141

Flat Charge	142
Fixed-Fee Pricing	142
Keeping Time Records	142
Convincing the Client	144

CHAPTER THIRTEEN
Budgeting in the Plaintiff Firm 145

The Case for Timekeeping	145
Profitability	146
Evaluation	146
Settlement Point	146
Buying Out Terminated Lawyers	147
Asset Valuation	147
Legal Record	147
Alternate Budgeting Methods	148
Compensating Lawyers	149

CHAPTER FOURTEEN
Using or Misusing Statistical Surveys 151

Why Participate in Surveys?	151
How to Use a Survey	152

CHAPTER FIFTEEN
Problems of Multioffice Firms 155

Accrual Basis versus Cash Basis	156
Interoffice Transfers	156
Expense Allocation	156
Profit Center versus Cost Center	158

CHAPTER SIXTEEN
Owner Compensation 161

Objectives of a Compensation System	163
Implementing a Compensation System	164
General Partner Criteria	165
The Compensation-Setting Process	166
Setting Monthly Draws	167
Relationships	168
Merger Compensation Issues	169

Documenting a Compensation System	171
Potential Problems	172
Bonuses	174
Expectations of Partners	174
Charging for Good Will	175
A Plan That Works	175
Capitalization	176
Dispelling the Originations Myth	177
A Form for Surveying Partners	180
CHAPTER SEVENTEEN
The Multitier Ownership Structure and Alternatives	187
Making a Multitier System Work	188
Equity versus Nonequity Partners	191
Alternative Structures	192
Developing New Partners	193
CHAPTER EIGHTEEN
Accumulating Equity in a Professional Services Firm	195
The Right to Accumulate Equity	195
Implementing an Equity Accumulation System	196
The Opposition to an Equity Plan	197
Payout Prior to Termination	198
CHAPTER NINETEEN
Mergers and Lateral Hires	201
Mergers	202
Understanding the Reason for the Merger	202
Resolving Important Issues Early	203
Changing the Name	204
Staff Issues	204
Using Consultants	204
The Negotiating Team	205
Sharing Financial Information	205
Other Merger Issues	206
The Integration Process	207
Lateral Hires	209
Contract Lawyers	211

Marginal Income	211
Due Diligence Issues	212
Compensation	212
Capital	213
Other Issues	213
Technology	215
Marketing	215

CHAPTER TWENTY

The Leased Law Firm Executive 217

Defining the Job	219
Making It Work	220
Pitfalls to Avoid	221
“Crunch Period”	224
Marketing Your Service	226
What Is Required to Market and Perform in This Environment	227

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

Compensation Strategies for the Nonowner Attorney 233

Axioms for NOA Compensation	233
Compensation Plans	234
Compensation for the “Normal” Associate	236
Alternative Programs	238
Compensation for the Experienced NOA	240
Other Bonus Opportunities	242
Nonequity Partner/Shareholder Compensation	242
Summary	244

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

Getting the Most Out of Your TABS3 Software 245

BKHOURS.T3R—Exhibit A	246
BKWIPAR.T3R—Exhibit B	248
BKCLIHIS.T3R—Exhibit C	254
BKTKREC.T3R—Exhibit D	260
BKBSTCLI.T3R—Exhibit E	263

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE
How to Survive as a Legal Manager	269
Large versus Small Firms	270
Other Differences	271
Issues of Authority	272
Salary Considerations	274
Rules of Survival	274
Other Publications Written by John Iezzi	279
About the Author	285
Index	286
